ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

This document has been prepared as a PDF file using material contained in a large notebook of the same title that has been in the possession of Mr Gordon Thomson (Aberdour Postmaster 1999-2015). The original notebook was compiled from various sources by Marjorie Stewart. In Autumn 2014 it was decided that it would be useful to have a digital copy of this information so that it could be made freely available to future researchers. To this end Gordon and his wife Hazel very kindly volunteered to scan each page of the notebook. This method was chosen over "copy-typing" in order to avoid transcription errors. To help future researchers Hazel has compiled an index of names for the first three sections of the document (pages 1 - 82).

The scanned images of the first 116 pages of the document have been "reassembled" in their original order into a single document and the original page numbering has been retained. Each page of this document consists of a single scanned image of the corresponding page in the original notebook. Page numbers are at the top right of the page.

CONTENTS

This document contains eight sections plus an index of names which is included at the end of the document. These sections are listed below.

Pages 1 – 12 Record of Mortcloth Dues 1790-1817. This information was extracted from the Old Parochial Registers O.P.R.401/2. Often the only record that a death has taken place will be implied in the payment of a fee to the parish for the hire of the mortcloth or pall which was draped over the coffin or the body itself for the funeral.

Pages 15 – 82 Chapter 3. Register of Deaths in the Parish of Aberdour County of Fife. 1817-1852.

Pages 83 – 90 Aberdour New Church Yard Internments 1888-1923.

Pages 91 – 96 New Churchyard Index of Graves. The location of each grave is identified by Section and Lair numbers. A Lair is the piece of ground to which the exclusive right of burial has been granted to an individual or family, the Lairholder, who has "purchased" the Lair. The Section number refers to a particular area of the Churchyard.

Pages 97 – 102 Aberdour New Churchyard – Lairholders. (source and original researcher unknown)

Pages 103 – 109 St Fillans Churchyard Inscriptions – Inscriptions pre 1855. (original researcher unknown, but probably as for following section)

Pages 111 – 116 Wester Churchyard. A list of inscriptions in Aberdour Wester Churchyard.

The information in this section was compiled in 1972 by J.F. Mitchell and is copyright of the Scottish Genealogy Society.

Pages 117 – to end of document. INDEX of NAMES appearing on pages 1 to 82 of this document.

This index was compiled in 2014 by Hazel Thomson as an aid to those using this document. Please note: Entries (names) on pages after page 82 are not included; multiple references denote the same name, not necessarily the same person. Not every name appearing on pages 1 to 82 is included in the index so if you do not find the name you are looking for in the index please read these pages carefully as it may still be included in this document.

Additional Notes.

The Scottish Record Society publications dealing with Edinburgh marriages and apprentices contain frequent references to persons outside Edinburgh, e.g. -

Jas Bennet indweller St Giles parish & Cath da of deceased Wm White shipmaster Aberdour married 2.8.1752;

John Phinn s of John P. in Aberdour apprentice to Alex
Stevenson merchant 1750.

 Torryburn parishes) and of St Andrews (the other parishes); these are continued to 1823 by indexes in the Scottish Record Office for St. Andrews and other commissariots, and from 1823 to 1892 in two indexes for the County of Fife. Another authority which may be consulted "under the dome" in Old Register House or in the Lord Lyon's library in New Register House is a printed book "Index to the Personal Estates of Defuncts in the Commissariat Court Books of Fife . . . 1846 to 1867 inclusive, vol. v" this gives date of death and county of registration in most cases.

Beveridge - the Dunfermline Public Library has a collection of papers (T 15) left by Erskine Beveridge, author of "The Churchyard Memorials of Crail" 1893; these papers include inscriptions with some sketches from the churchyards at Aberdour, Beath, Crombie, Culross, Dalgety, Dunfermline, Inverkeithing, Rosyth, Saline and Tulliallan and from houses in Kincardine, the old seaport town in Tulliallan parish - see Notes to these places.

Jervise - i.e. "Manuscript Collection of Andrew Jervise, vol v, Fifeshire" MS 84 in library of the Society of Antiquaries, Scotland; the inscriptions were recorded about 1893 by Jervise in churchyards Aberdour, Beath, Burntisland, Carnock, Crombie, Culross, Dunfermline, Dysart, Inverkeithing, Kinghorn, Kirkcaldy, Abbotshall and Torryburn - see Notes to these burial grounds.

Monteith - first issued in 1704 as "An Theater of Mortality collected and englished by R. Monteith, A.M.;" enlarged 1713; revised and extended in Glasgow editions of 1831 and 1851 under the title "Collection of Epitaphs and Monumental Inscriptions in Scotland" - gives translations of Latin inscriptions - see Notes pp 160, 200 and 250; references are to the 1851 edition.

Rogers, i.e. "Monuments and Monumental Inscriptions in Scotland" by Rev. Charles Rogers, LL.D (Grampian Club publication) has some inscriptions with notes - see Notes for Aberdour, Burntisland, Carnock, Dalgety, Dunfermline, Dysart, Kinghorn, Kirkcaldy, Abbotshall and Torryburn.

Ancient Monuments - "Royal Commission on Ancient and Historical Monuments and Constructions of Scotland, 11th Report, with Inventory of Monuments in the Counties of Fife, Kinross and Clackmannan", 1893, quotes various inscriptions, to which reference is made in the Notes concerned, infra.

Census - the decennial census records from 1841 are in the custody of the Registrar General, Scotland, except for the census returns of 1841 and 1851 for Kinghorn and Kirkcaldy, which were lost in transit from London about 1856.

Hearth and Poll Taxes - lists of hearths, 1694, for various parishes are in the Scottish Record Office (E 69/1 and 2) but there are no poll tax lists except for 20 names in Aberdour in 1698 (E 70/5/2).

Primrose Chart, referred to in the Notes on Torryburn and Tulliallan is in the custody of the ~~Scots Ancestry Research~~ ^{Scottish} Genealogy Society; it is a record of relationship, with dates, of about 4000 persons of the name of Primrose, beginning around Culross and Tulliallan from 1490.

Copyright - the copyright of this book is vested in the Scottish Genealogy Society, of which the Honorary Secretary is Miss J.P.S. Ferguson, 21 Howard Place, Edinburgh EH3 5JY.
